

Other Quality

A well Thought-out Layout and Gromping of Equipment.

Customized Body Electronics System

Beginning with the power windows and wireless door locks, the newly equipped customized body electronics system allows the settings of several electronic components to be changed according to the personal preferences of the user.

Automatic Recirculating System

A new system is utilized whereby a sensor detects the level of exhaust gases (CO and HC) when the switch is open. It then automatically switches the interior/exterior air in accordance with the concentration of these gases and adjusts the amount of air to be circulated.

These specs not available in the G.C.C. Countries.

Meter Panel

Three highly visible independent Optitron meters are utilized.

An an automatically activated light system and excellent visibility is featured. With a 3-meter panel layout that caters to the sports car enthusiast, driving pleasure is visually supported as well.

